CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

1. Introduction

Regulation 9 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as Regulations) requires inter alia every listed company and intermediary registered with SEBI to mandatorily formulate a code of conduct governing trading by designated persons and their immediate relatives.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation, of every other person who is required to handle unpublished price sensitive information in the course of business operations shall formulate a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by their designated persons and immediate relative of designated persons towards achieving compliance with these regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule C to these regulations, without diluting the provisions of these regulations in any manner.

Further, regulation 7 of the Regulations requires every promoter, key managerial personnel, directors and employee of listed companies to disclose their shareholdings and changes to such shareholding to the respective companies.

In compliance with the above requirements, the company has introduced a code for prohibition of Insider Trading (hereinafter referred to as the 'Code').

This code shall come into force on August 10, 2020 (effective date).

2. Objective

AAA Technologies Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of un-published price sensitive information and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Designated Person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such information obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Designated Person may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party. Such persons are prohibited from communicating / or counseling others with respect to the securities of the Company. Such persons should also refrain from profiteering by misusing the unpublished price sensitive information and thereby enabling the Company to retain investor confidence.

To achieve these objectives, the Company hereby notifies that this code of conduct is to be followed by all Designated Persons.

3. Definition of terms

- 4.6 Reviewing the trading plan and assessing the potential of the plan for violation of the Regulations, if any;
- 4.7 Notify the trading plan to the stock exchanges where the securities are listed, on approval of the plan.

5 Prohibition on Dealing, Communicating or Counseling on Matters relating to Insider Trading.

No Insider shall: -

- (i) either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other person, deal in securities of the Company when in the possession of any unpublished price sensitive information;
- (ii) communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6 Preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Designated Persons shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of Securities. Following practices should be followed in this regard.

6.1 Need to know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a “need to know” basis, i.e., Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

6.2 Limited access to Confidential Information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use. Shredder should be used for the destruction of physical files.

6.2.1 Further no Designated Person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the Company or its securities, either directly or indirectly except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.2.2 Any person including Auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultant firms etc., assisting or advising the Company, who is expected to have access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in the course of business operations shall formulate a Code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its employees/ Connected persons towards achieving compliance of these regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in the Regulations without diluting any provisions. They will also be subjected to the trading window provisions of this Code.

7 Trading Restrictions

All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the company only in a valid trading window after obtaining pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer and shall not enter into any transaction in the company's securities during the 'close period'.

8 Pre-clearance of transactions

- 8.1.1 All Designated Persons of the company who intend to deal in the securities of the company in any manner whatsoever, shall apply in the prescribed form to the Compliance Officer for pre-clearance together with necessary undertakings as prescribed in Form No. 1 along with a statement of holdings at the time of pre-clearance as prescribed in Form No. 4.
- 8.1.2 The Compliance Officer shall grant the approval or reject the application within two working days of the receipt of application for pre-clearance.
- 8.1.3 Such persons shall execute the order for which pre-clearance has been obtained within seven trading days of such approval or within such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Compliance Officer. The details of the transaction shall be communicated to the compliance officer within two (2) working days thereof. In case, the person is unable to execute the order within seven working days after the approval or within such lesser period as prescribed by the Compliance Officer, a fresh application for pre-clearance (as mentioned above) shall be made.

9 Minimum Holding Period

All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time.

Under circumstances of personal emergency, such persons shall make an application (Form No. 3) to the Compliance Officer requesting a waiver of the holding period, explaining the reason for the same. The Compliance Officer may on being satisfied as to the urgency of the situation grant the waiver.

10 Trading Plans

Any Insider who may be perpetually in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is entitled to formulate a trading plan enabling him/her to trade in securities in a compliant manner. The Compliance Officer is required to review the trading plan to assess whether the plan potentially violates the Regulations. Trading plan approved by the Compliance Officer should be notified to the stock exchanges where the securities are listed.

Trading plan shall:

- Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- Not entail trading for the period between twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

- Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer may seek express undertakings necessary for the assessment, approval and implementation of the trading plan. An approved trading plan is irrevocable. Insider cannot execute any trade outside the scope of the trading plan.

Trading plan shall state either the value of the trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or the dates on which such trades shall be executed. Implementation of a trading plan shall not commence if any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan is not generally available at the time of commencement of the implementation. Compliance Officer may defer the commencement until such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is generally available.

Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

1. Introduction

Regulation 8 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as Regulations) requires inter alia every listed company to formulate and publish on its official website, a code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that it would follow in order to adhere to each of the principles set out in Schedule A to the regulations. Accordingly the Board of Directors of AAA Technologies Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") at their meeting held on August 10, 2020 has formulated code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that it would follow in order to adhere to each of the principles set out in Schedule A to the regulations.

This code shall come into force on August 10, 2020 (effective date).

2. Objective of the Code of Fair Disclosures

The Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosures is required for the Company to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information which would impact the price of the company's securities and to maintain the uniformity, transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to applicable laws and regulations. Further, the Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of un-published price sensitive information and to prevent misuse of such information.

3. Prompt disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

The Company shall promptly make public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.

4. Uniform and Universal dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

The Company shall make uniform and universal dissemination of unpublished Price Sensitive to avoid selective disclosure

5. Chief Investor Relations Officer

The Company hereby designates the Chief Financial Officer/Company Secretary as a Chief Investor Relations Officer to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.

6. Dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information disclosed selectively

The Company shall promptly disseminate the unpublished price sensitive information that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available.

7. Overseeing and coordinating disclosure:

The Chief Investor Relations Officer, for the purpose of these regulations, shall oversee corporate disclosures and deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Chief Investor Relations Officer shall be responsible for ensuring that the Company complies with continuous disclosure requirements and; overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information to stock exchanges, on the website of the company and media.

If information is accidentally disclosed without prior approval of Chief Investor Relations Officer, the person responsible may inform the Chief Investor Relations Officer immediately, even if the information is not considered unpublished price sensitive. In such event of inadvertent, selective disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information, the Chief Investor Relations Officer shall take prompt action to ensure such information is generally available.

8. Appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities

8.1 Any queries or requests for verification of market rumours by exchanges should be forwarded immediately to the Chief Investor relations Officer who shall decide on the response/clarification.

8.2 The Chief Investor relations Officer shall decide whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumours and then making the disclosure

8.3 The Company will, subject to non-disclosure obligations, aim to provide appropriate and fair response to the queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.

8.4 As a general practice, if the rumour appears in a responsible media channel which has reasonably wide audience and rumour can have material impact on pricing of securities, then the Company would immediately make a proper announcement to present the correct position.

9. Timely Reporting of shareholdings/ ownership and changes in ownership:

Disclosure of shareholdings/ ownership by major shareholders and disclosure of changes in ownership as provided under any Regulations made under the Act and the listing agreement shall be made in a timely and adequate manner.

10. Disclosure/ dissemination of Price Sensitive Information with special reference to Analysts, Institutional Investors

The guidelines given hereunder shall be followed while dealing with analysts and institutional investors:-

(i) Only Public information to be provided

Only public information should be provided to the analyst/ research persons alternatively, the information given to the such persons should be made generally available at the earliest.

(ii) Recording of discussion
